

RoHS and WEEE Specialists (NZ) Ltd

Supporting The Good Company

A RoHS and WEEE Model

Presented by Roland Sommer

www.raws.co.nz

www.electronicssouth.com

Contents

1. A five stage model of the development of The Good Company
2. The New Zealand Support model for RoHS and WEEE

The 5 Stages of development of The Good Company

Stage 1 – Awareness

Legislation

- Media
- Trade association newsletters

Customers

- Tender Documents
- Compliance declaration requests

Suppliers

- Non availability of components

The 5 Stages of development of The Good Company

Stage 2 – Investigation

Legislation

- Immediate requirements
- Future requirements
 - Legislation (EuP – IPP)
 - Geographic – are other countries adopting similar legislations

Potential for competitive advantage

Technical issues/Competitive disadvantage

Develop Company Strategy

The 5 Stages of development of The Good Company

Stage 3 – Education

Finding out the details

- Training courses
- Seminars
- Web research
- Full time project manager appointed
- Conduct supplier survey

The 5 Stages of development of The Good Company

Stage 4 – Implementation

Form a project team

Formulate a tactical project plan

Develop processes and procedures

Modify software

Collate data

The 5 Stages of development of The Good Company

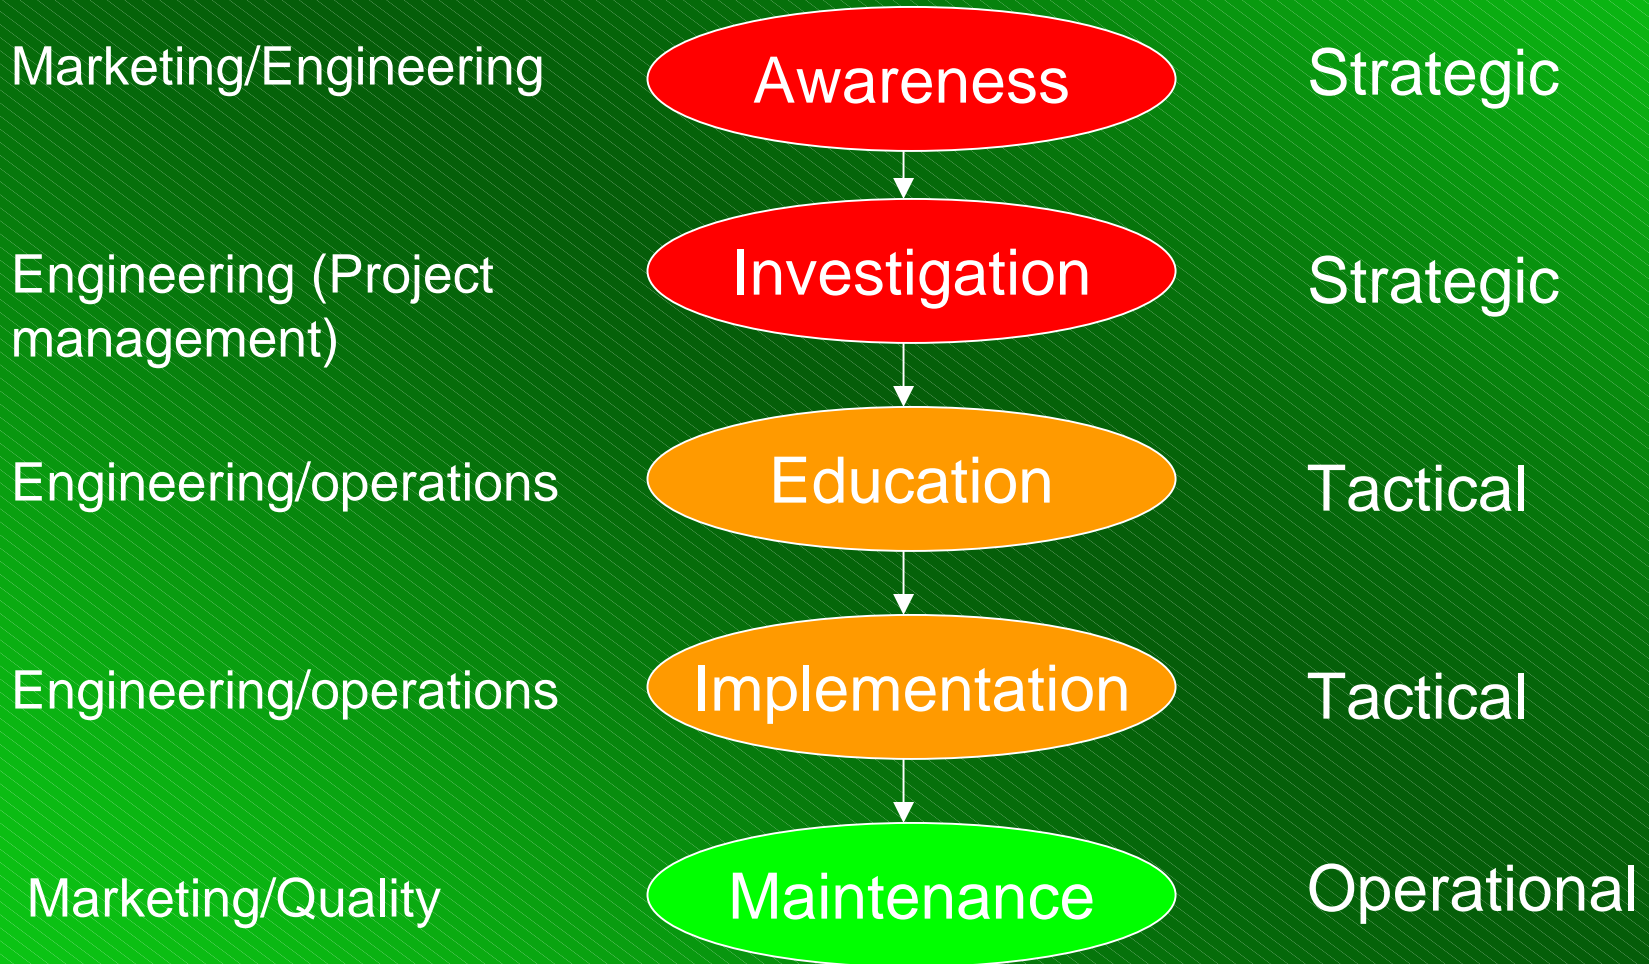

Stage 5 – Maintenance

Audit level inspection on compliant parts

Auditing of processes and procedures

Keeping informed of trends and future “Good Company” developments

The 5 Stages of development of The Good Company

RoHS and WEEE Specialists (NZ) Ltd

The Good Company

The New Zealand Support
Infrastructure

Basic Infrastructure

New Zealand Government Funding

